Mass Intentions – many people ask for Masses to be said at Christmas; this year Christmas may extend well in January, but they will all be said eventually.

White Flower Collection for SPUC will take place this Sunday.

Men of the Parish: Were you fortunate to receive, as Christmas Gifts, Scarves, Hats or Gloves? Please donate your old, unwanted ones to Mother Teresa's Men's Mission in Liverpool, where they will be gratefully received and given to those men who really need them. There is a box at the back of Church. Thank you.

Christmas Raffle: A big thank you to all who bought tickets. Together we raised £260 for the church building fund. See you again for Easter.

Farewell: Rev John Hodgkinson leaves St. Mary's Walney this week. Many people will be grateful for his ministry on Walney. Our good wishes and prayers go with him (though they don't have to go far – to St. Francis at Ormsgill!)

First Communion: meeting for Parents and Children on Wednesday 12th January at 6:30

Bishop's New Year Letter: This should have been read last Sunday (We forgot about it!), but maybe this week, when there are probably more people here is a good time to read it. It raises important issues for the diocese. The Bishop would like responses, you can write to him at the Pastoral Centre, Balmoral Road, Lancaster LA1 3BT or through the diocesan website:
